Key Terms and Conditions:

1. Employment and Responsibilities

You will be employed full time as an Office Admin at our Panchkula location, with the possibility of transfers as required by business needs. Your specific duties and work hours will be communicated by your supervisor.

2. Compensation and Benefits

Your monthly salary is determined based on your past experience, previous salary, and the performance indicators assessed during the interview process. In addition to your fixed compensation, you will be eligible for shift allowances and, after your probation period, for paid time off (PTO) and medical insurance as per the company policies.

3. Probation and Performance Review

Your appointment is subject to a probation period of three months. A performance review will be conducted at the end of this period to assess your suitability for continued employment. Please note that no leave benefits will accrue during probation.

4. Policies and Compliance

Your employment is governed by the terms outlined in this offer letter as well as the Company's Employee Handbook. All detailed policies—including confidentiality, conduct, leave, working hours, and termination procedures—are provided in the Handbook. By accepting this offer, you agree to abide by all the policies and procedures set forth in the Employee Handbook.

5. Notice Period and Termination

In the event you choose to resign, a one-month notice period (or payment in lieu thereof) is required. Similarly, if the Company terminates your employment, the terms regarding notice and final settlements will follow the procedures detailed in the Handbook.

6. Additional Conditions

- Your appointment is contingent upon the verification of your credentials and the submission of all required documentation (such as your experience letter and previous payroll slips).
- You may be required to participate in training programs or undertake temporary assignments, including travel, as necessary.
- Your salary and other compensation details are confidential and should not be disclosed to others.

We welcome you as a member of our family. We hope that our association will be symbiotic. Please sign this letter in token of your acceptance of the appointment on the above terms and conditions at the earliest.

Thank you,

Yours Truly
